Hyderabad

06-Oct-18

Workshop on Online Safety, Mental Health and Financial Health of Senior Citizens will be held on Oct 9

Entry is free, Senior Citizens are invited to register their names

UNMUKT Festival, India's biggest Festival of Senior Citizens announced its first event in the city. Known as UNMUKT Knowledge Series it will be held in partnership with several organisations here in the Hyderabad city of Telangana State on October 9, 2018.

This programme will discuss Online Safety, Mental Health and Financial Health. It is an excellent opportunity for elders to know more about how they can be safe online as well as know more about their mental, physical and financial health.

Experts on the subject will address the audience.

The objective of this maiden Unmukt Knowledge Series programme is to engage Senior Citizens in a meaningful dialogue on a better future as a run-up to the flagship UNMUKT FESTIVAL, India's biggest festival for Senior Citizens to be held at HITEX in December this year in the city.

First Programme of UNMUKT Knowledge Series - Workshop on Online Safety, Mental Health and Financial Health of Senior Citizens will be held on October 9 in the Hyderabad City

Entry to the UNMUKT Knowledge Series Programme will be by invitation only, on first come first registered basis. There is no registration fee. Entry is free. Those interested in participating may seek more information on 7907105207. The venue will be made known only to the limited 70 participants.
